10. Declaration forms, one set each for the applicant and sponsor, are required to be downloaded and printed after login to e-PR system. The signed declaration forms must be uploaded via the e-PR system during the submission of supporting documents.
11. All information furnished in the form must be complete, accurate and verifiable. You may be required to provide additional information and documents if necessary.

Important Notes

12. The grant of permanent residence does not exempt an individual from registration with the relevant professional bodies or any other statutory conditions as required by legislation governing the regulation of their professions (e.g. doctors, lawyers, etc.).
13. Ex-Singapore Citizens and Ex-Singapore PRs who have withdrawn their CPF monies would have to refund the full CPF amount withdrawn if their PR application is approved. A letter of clearance from CPF Board is required for completion of PR formalities. For further enquiries please contact the CPF Board via the following avenues:

CPF Service Centres
(you may visit www.cpf.gov.sg for the addresses of the five Service Centres and their operating hours)
Contact number: 1800-2271188
Email: closing-account@cpf.gov.sg

14. You should inform ICA promptly via the e-PR system should you change your residential address before the outcome of your application is known, otherwise you will not receive important letters relating to the application.
15. ICA collects personal information to administer immigration and registration functions in Singapore. We may share necessary data with other Government agencies (or non-Government entities authorized to carry out specific Government services) so as to process any applications you made or to render you a service, to serve you in the most efficient and effective way, unless such sharing is prohibited by law.

Enquiries on PR Application

16. Applicants may enquire the status of their PR application via iEnquiry (<https://ienquiry.ica.gov.sg>) or use the "Enquire Application Status" function in the e-PR homepage.

Warning

If you knowingly and wilfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document in relation to any application, action will be instituted against you and you will be denied all immigration facilities. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by the law.
