

Advisory Notes for Pre-Marriage Long-Term Visit Pass Assessment

This free online Pre-Marriage Long-Term Visit Pass Assessment (PMLA) will give a Singapore Citizen (SC) and Non-resident (NR) couple greater clarity in planning for marriage and stay in Singapore. Through this free assessment, a SC who intends to marry a NR can check if the intended NR spouse is likely to be eligible for a Long-Term Visit Pass (LTVP). This is important, as marriage to a SC does not automatically qualify a foreign spouse for long-term stay in Singapore.

Important Notes

- a. The online PMLA form must be completed in English.
- b. The completed form must be submitted within 7 days of starting the draft. Forms not submitted within 7 days will be automatically removed.
- c. The SC and intended NR spouse are to jointly complete, review and declare that all the particulars furnished in the form are true and correct.
- d. Any false statement and/or declaration in relation to the PMLA would render the assessment outcome invalid.
- e. The PMLA will be processed within one month.
- f. Couples with a positive assessment will be issued with a Letter of Eligibility ("Letter") and may apply for LTVP within one year of receiving the "Letter". The "Letter" is not an LTVP and does not constitute an approval of an LTVP.
- g. An application for an LTVP is required to be submitted if the NR spouse intends to reside in Singapore after the couple is legally married.
- h. Existing and former Work Permit holders (including Training Work Permit) who wish to marry Singapore Citizens or Permanent Residents in Singapore or overseas, regardless the type of marriage (civil, religious or customary) must first seek approval from the Controller of Work Passes. If they fail to do so, their privileges to work in Singapore could be withdrawn. They may also be prevented from entering Singapore for a period of time. For more information, please refer to the Ministry of Manpower (MOM) website.
